Requirements for Signing (Executing) a Valid Health Care Durable Power of Attorney

Illinois has certain requirements and formalities that must be followed to properly sign a Health Care Durable Power of Attorney:

- 1 The first most basic requirement of a valid Durable Power of Attorney is that it must be in writing.
- 2 The next requirement is that the “Principal” (the person creating the Health Care Durable Power of Attorney) must sign it with the intent of creating a valid Power of Attorney. Ideally, you should sign your full legal name the same way it appears on other legal documents. If you are unable to sign your document, we suggest you consult with a local attorney about properly executing your Power of Attorney.
- 3 Another requirement is that there be witnesses to the signing of the Durable Power of Attorney. Illinois requires that there be one witness.

Witnesses

Illinois requires one witness is present at the signing of your Power of Attorney. The witness may be called upon to testify to “prove” your Health Care Power of Attorney. To be competent as a witness, a person must be over the age of majority (18), must have the mental capacity to know that he or she is acting as a witness to the Power of Attorney, and would be competent to testify regarding the signing of the Durable Power of Attorney. In addition, a witness should be as impartial as possible in regards to the Power of Attorney. Witnesses should be carefully selected for their independence and credibility. A witness does not need to read the Power of Attorney, but should read the paragraph describing the requirements of a witness, which precedes his or her signature.
